Notes from Liessa...

Shalom and Chag Sameach!

Happy Sukkot Everyone!

I love the holiday of sukkot. I believe it is best articulates many of the wonderful attributes of Shaare Emeth and our Religious School community. During the holiday of Sukkot we invite friends, families, and guests to our Sukkot. We open our arms and welcome others to join us in laughter and food! ...and hopefully to learn and study a bit with us as well! Don't forget to shake a lulav and an etrog too!

I encourage our families to step inside a sukkah this year....to eat a little, ...to study a little...and hopefully to enjoy each other's company!

If you are looking for a Sukkah, I know just where to find one! Join us on Sunday morning or throughout the week in one of our Sukkat at Shaare Emeth.

And parents, after you step inside a Sukkah at Shaare Emeth, please join the Jewish National Fund (JFN) at Shaare Emeth to hear Ron Bernstein the founder of Kibbutz Yahel speak about his vision and hear about The Negev in Bloom. Although we have passed the RSVP date, you are more than welcome to join us for a
