Religious School Upcoming Dates

Notes from Liessa...

Shalom Shaare Emeth Religious School Families!

Shana Tova and G'mar chatima tova!

I hope everyone is having a wonderful holiday season! I love this time of year....the feelings of new beginnings...new opportunities...new chances to start again!

I often say that Torah is a great educator and that is why the school year and the Jewish year begin at the same time.

At Shaare Emeth we strongly believe that Jewish education is truly a partnership between families and the Religious School community. Because of this partnership we continue to encourage our families to learn, grow, and experience Jewish life within our halls as well as with your own homes and in the greater community.

Although there is no official Religious School this Sunday as well as during midweek next week, there are MANY opportunities for each of us to "do Jewish" together or as part of a greater community. I strongly encourage our families to participate and enjoy all the activities, services, and celebrations. I especially encourage our parents to come into the building on Sunday, October 16th with their students and attend the Jewish National Fund breakfast and program. The program begins at 10, with registration beginning at 9:30. See the bulletin for more details and to RSVP.

Don't forget all the other happenings in our neck of the woods...
